Peripatetic lessons

Instrumental and singing lessons to students are continuing through live lessons and various other media. Tutors are checking in with students, so if you know that your child learns an instrument at school then please can you also ask if they are accessing these lessons.